She S Come Home To Steal Her Rainbows

"She's Come Home To Steal Her Rainbows"
by Great Lakes Myth Society,
an uber-underappreciated band.
http://greatlakesmythsociety.com/
From "Rainbows" Single
Label: Quack! Media

Intro: Bass E - F# - B

Verse: A/E - C#m - B/E - E

There's a cloud coming through my window
There's a corn husk tied round my banjo
In the hallway bright and plain clothed
She's come home to steal her rainbows

Interlude 1: A - E - C#m - Ab - E - D E - E - D E

Verse: A/E - C#m - B/E - E

She was born in a lighthouse stairwell
Ghosts of the Great Lakes declared their angel
Would lead the freight trains to where the land parts
And bring them home to see their sweethearts

Interlude 2: A - E D - E - D E - A - C#m D

Bridge: Em - D A - E - D A
And when the clouds came,
Oh there were rainbows!

E (or variation, E57b6)

Verse: A/E - C#m - B/E - E

She was long like a union rifle
She was cold as a motel bible
When we kissed 'neath the moonlight's halo
She'd come home to steal her rainbows

Outro: A - C#m - B - E
C#m - B - C#m

Source: http://tabs.ultimate-guitar.com/g/great_lakes_myth_society/shes_come_home_to_steal_her_rainbows_crd.htm