Hey. This is Frank again. I am still 13, and I still love The Beatles and the Grateful Dead. Anyway, here is (Just Like) Starting Over, from John Lennon and Yoko Ono's 1980 release, Double Fantasy. Hope you like it.

      A
 It's been too long since we took the time,
   A+                              Bm       E
No one's to blame.  I know time flies so quickly.
Bm              E
 But, when I see you darlin',
C#m          F#                  Bm                E
 It's like we both are fallin' in love, again, it'll be,
                A   A+        A     A+
 just like starting over.  Starting over.

        A
 Every day we used to make it, love.
A+                              Bm      E
Why can't we be makin' love, nice and easy?
Bm              E
 It's time to spread our wings and,
C#m             F#                  Bm                E
fly.  Don't let another day go by, my love, it'll be,
                A   A+        A     G
 just like starting over.  Starting over.

G                               Am
 Why don't we take off alone,
D7                               G
 take a trip somewhere far, far away.
Em                          Am
 We'll be together all alone, again,
D7                              G          E              D/F#  E/G#
 like we used to be in the early days.  Well, well dar - lin'

 It's been too long since we took the time,

 But, when I see you darlin'
C#m          F#                  Bm                E
 It's like we both are falling in love, again, it'll be
                A   A+        A     A+
 just like starting over.  Starting over.

     A      A+          F#/A      A+
 Our life, together, is so precious, together,
          A      E7         A         E7
we have grown, we have grown.
            A             A+     F#/A
 Although our love, is still special,
A7                              D/A    Dm/A
