I Don T Want To Get Over You

C-G-C-G-C-G-C-D

C G
I don't want to get over you. I guess I could take C G C G C a sleeping pill and sleep at will and not have to D go through what I go through. I guess I should take
C G C G C D
Prozac, right, and just smile all night at somebody new,
Am C
Somebody not too bright but sweet and kind who would Am C Am C
try to get you off my mind. I could leave this agony behind
G D
which is just what I'd do if I wanted to, but I don't C G
want to get over you

C-G-C-G-C-D

C G
cause I don't want to get over love.
C G C G
I could listen to my therapist, pretend you don't exist
C D
and not have to dream of what I dream of; I could listen
C G C G C D
to all my friends and go out again and pretend it's enough, Am C Am
or I could make a career of being blue--I could dress
C Am
in black and read Camus, smoke clove cigarettes and drink
C G D vermouth like I was 17 that would be a scream but I don't want to get over you.vhe c
